

'I DO'

TO DO'S

Beauty + Wellness

8-10
Months

- Look for pictures on Pinterest and Instagram for inspiration to show your artist
- Interview makeup and hairstylists and arrange a trial
  - Create a list of bridesmaids (plus flower girls, mother of the bride, etc.) that would also like to have their hair and makeup done
- Create a wellness and fitness routine

2-3
Months

- Make beauty appointments
  - Facials, manicures, pedicures, haircut & color, teeth whitening
  - TIP: Try facials out ahead of time to ensure you don't have any adverse reactions
- Let the wedding party know if you'd like them to wear specific lip color, nail polish, etc.
- Finalize wedding day hair and makeup
  - TIP: Bring any hair accessories you're wearing on the wedding day with you to the appointment
- Test out a spray tan if you want a sun-kissed look on your day
  - TIP: Do NOT wait until the week of your wedding to try this out and end up looking too orange!
- Be drinking lots of water and maintaining your wellness routine

1
Month

- Put together a day-of emergency kit (deodorant, concealer, tissues, sewing kit, etc.)
- Ask stylist when you should wash your hair before the wedding day

2-3
Weeks

- Get a haircut and color
  - TIP: Get a hair trim and stick with your usual shade(s)

Week
Of

- Groom to have their hair cut and get a professional shave (a day or 2 prior)
- Get a facial, manicure, pedicure, and spray tan
- Confirm wedding day arrival time with hairstylist and makeup artists

Day

- Eat a healthy breakfast and don't forget to drink water
- Have hair and makeup done 2-3 hours before the ceremony
  - TIP: Wear a button-up, flannel, or robe – something easy to remove so you don't mess up your gorgeous locks
